Principal's Report

Dear Families,

This week we would like to warmly welcome a new baby into the ONPS families, welcome Markus Martin a gorgeous little brother for Silas and Amy-Rose.

Yesterday we had lots of awards for positive behaviour and more than 100 nights reading! Well done to: Natalie Rixon, Alex Knight, Jazzy Martin, Sara Tatti, Sophie Knight, Tiarnah Sinclair and Bella Archer. Dustin Bommer and Chad Sinclair also won the Reading Raffle.

All Clubs will begin this Friday with the help of Liam Pashos standing in for Mr Bush.

This Tuesday and Wednesday I'm fortunate enough to be able to take the opportunity offered by Bastow Institute of Educational Leadership. They will be running a two day course in Bairnsdale (instead of Melbourne), called "Open-To-Learning" Leadership. I'm looking forward to developing my skills in order to manage Orbost North even better, as we never stop learning!

Sporting Schools will run on Monday and Wednesday afternoons this term with Liam and Jan and two lunch times a week with Liam and Chantelle. It's lots of fun and it's free!

Enjoy the sunshine!

Cheers,

Jo Dacy-Broome

The Blob by Jazzy

Martin

Once upon a time there was a big, ugly disgusting blob. The blob liked scaring kids, he moved slowly and quietly.

The girl got scared and ran away

but the

blob

followed

her and so she went faster

and

faster.

She ran home and told her Mum, so they both went out to have a look for it but it was already in the house. It was in the girl's room so she cried and said "Go away or I will tell my mum." She told her mum and she said "We are moving away."
