Principal's Report

Dear Families,
Well it looks like we are well and truly in the cold season on all accounts. If students are unwell we do understand so please let us know and let them recover in your warm homes so they can return fit and well to work, without sharing the germs.

Yesterday we had lots of awards for great work, reliability and honesty. Well done to: Elliott Thomas, Jacob Richards, Jimmy Cameron, Chad Sinclair,

Our Reading Raffle winners were Dylan Millard and Amy Smith.

I would like to give a special mention to Rianna Tatti for gaining her 100, 125 and now 150 nights of reading! Congratulations, Rianna we hope you are enjoying reading every night.

All Clubs will continue this Friday with Anita Lutze returning to work with us on Fridays.

Attached to this Razzle is the annual Department of Educations Parent Survey, which needs to be completed and returned to the Office by the end of next week please. This information is very valuable to us in planning and making our school an even better learning space. Remember there will be a lucky prize for one family.

Last week the Prep/ones continued their procedure writing by making pancakes and writing the steps. We had a lot of fun with a lot of syrup! Yum.

Sporting Schools will run on Monday and Wednesday afternoons this term with Liam and Jan and two lunch times a week with Liam and Chantelle. It's lots of fun and it's free!

Keep healthy.
Cheers,

Jo Dacy-Broome

The Great Big Tree-house

By Chad Sinclair

After school on Friday, Mark, Billy, Narnie and I are making a tree-house out the front yard. Mark is my best friend from school. I can trust him to keep all of my secrets. Mark makes me laugh because he forgets when his birthday is. Imagine if he wakes up in the morning and asks, "What are all of these presents for?"

Billy is my naughty little dog. He has hairy, fawn fur. He is naughty because he bites all the time. Mum thinks he should be named Chad because he's naughty all the time. I agree with her.
